

WILLS KNOCKED OUT NORFOLK IN SECOND

NEW YORK, March 2.—Harry Wills, heavyweight fighter of New Orleans, tonight knocked out "Ed" Norfolk of Baltimore in the second round of their scheduled 15-round bout in Madison Square Garden.

No one at the ringside saw the blow that felled him. After the count, he walked to his corner and did not seem hurt.

Wills said the blow was a short inside right to the jaw.

Referee Kid McFarland told newspapermen that he saw the blow delivered and that it did not travel more than six inches.

The crowd expressed its disapproval of the manner in which the match was terminated. It is not yet known whether Norfolk had been hit. However, to prove that he really went down under a powerful punch, Norfolk displayed a deep cut in his mouth caused by the blow.

In the first round Norfolk took the aggressive and swung a left to Wills' head. Wills returned a straight right to the chin and followed Norfolk into a corner landing a left to the jaw. They parried for an opening.

Wills landed a left to the body and Norfolk fell heavily to the floor when he missed a long right swing to the head. Wills landed a left to the jaw in the ball.

In the second round Wills landed a powerful punch, Norfolk displayed a deep cut in his mouth caused by the blow.

Wills said he had floored Norfolk with a short left to the jaw and an inside short right to the jaw.

Billy Mike, St. Paul heavyweight, tonight knocked out Al Roberts of New York in the second round of their scheduled eight-round bout in Madison Square Garden, preceding the Wills-Norfolk contest.

Farmers Lodge of St. Paul stopped Paul Sampson, New York, in the fifth round of their bout. The referee stopped the bout when Sampson's jaw was dislocated by a right uppercut. The men are heavyweights.

Jack Reeves San Francisco, and Mike Burke, New York, light-heavyweights, boxed an eight-round draw.

DIEGEL AND HUTCHISON

THE FEATURE MATCH
New Orleans, March 2.—A field of 99 of the country's leading professionals, together with amateurs, will take off in the southern down golf championship over the Country Club course tomorrow morning. The match will be concluded Saturday.

The feature match of tomorrow's play will be between Lee Diegel, New Orleans professional, and John Hutchison, the British amateur champion. Jim Barnes, American open champion, has been matched with Gene Sarazen, the young Pittsburgh star.

Fight Called Off

Mexico City, March 2.—Negotiations for a fight between Jack Dempsey and some unknown opponent have been called off. Dempsey had accepted an offer of $50,000, but a demand by him that his opponent be given $100,000.

Wood Makes New Record

Miami, Fla., March 2.—Gar Wood of Detroit drove his express cruiser, Baby Gar, to a new world's record in the first caused the promoters to end the negotiations. It was supposed to hold the fight in the bull ring July 4.

WESLEYAN BASEBALL

SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED
Middletown, Conn., March 2.—The Wesleyan university baseball schedule, announced tonight, includes seven at-home games and nine away from home. The commencement game is scheduled to be played here June 17 with Amherst.

The schedule follows:
April 17, Springfield college at Springfield; 21, Massachusetts Aggies; 23, Columbia at New York; 27, Bowdoin; 29, New York university at New York; May 4, Brown; 6, Dartmouth at Hanover; 13, Williams; 18, Dartmouth; 20, Brown at Providence; 24, Connecticut Aggies; 25, Williams at Storrs; June 3, Massachusetts Aggies at Amherst; 17, Amherst; 20, Amherst at Amherst.

WESLEYAN AND AMHERST
CONFERENCE SATURDAY
Amherst, Mass., March 2.—A preliminary conference of the presidents of Bowdoin Wesleyan and Amherst colleges has been called for Saturday, March 4, by President Melickjohn of Amherst college to discuss the present situation in college athletics. The place of the conference was not announced but it was stated that it would be either Springfield or North Adams.

President Melickjohn said today that the preliminary conference was called to decide whether there should be a conference of all New England small colleges to consider the athletic situation. He added that it had been called by request of college heads who agreed with his recent statements on the evils of the present system.

Wanderers to Play Battery B
Friday night on the Baltic Gymnasium the Wanderers will play the Battery B basketball team from Norwich, the Battery men who have been making a good name for themselves are coming up strong. The Wanderers expect to have a new man in their lineup, who is fast and all around basketball player, with the following players: Higginson and Burgess forwards; Coody, center; Swanson and the dark horse guards, Simpson and Sullivan are the subs with a possible change around in the lineup.

The Bantams are expected to play the Wanderers from Jewett City, who have a good wall known player, as Durie, Barry and a few other good basketball players in their lineup.

Barry, who is popular with the ladies in Bath, will be the drawing card. The Wanderers manager has sent a letter to the manager of the Fifth C. of Western, about their going to Western, not being able to play a game, but up to now has received no reply.

Wood Makes New Record
Miami, Fla., March 2.—Gar Wood of Detroit drove his express cruiser, Baby Gar, to a new world's record in the first

In Every Case
7204
CIGAR
FANDUS FOR QUALITY

BASKETBALL

BALTIC GYM, FRIDAY, MARCH 3rd
BATTERY B (All-Stars)
VS.
BALTIC WANDERERS

BANTAMS, VS
JEWETT CITY OWLS

ADMISSION—GENTS 35c
LADIES 25c—CHILDREN 20c
TAX INCLUDED

which the pitcher has been holding back for some time. McGraw said that the conference would be held.

Foster's Pets Outclassed
At the Palace alleys on Thursday evening Foster's Pets, heralded as one of the fastest bowling teams in the city and claimants for the city championship, suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Palace Rookies before a large gallery of enthusiastic bowling fans. The following score tells of the blaster hopes of the Foster aggregation:

Palace Rookies.
Albi ..... 87 79 91—257
Fuller ..... 93 101 100—294
Johnson ..... 100 78 94—272
Albi ..... 116 89 95—300
Simcox ..... 105 98 84—287

Foster's Pets.
Rous ..... 98 75 79—252
Furlong ..... 98 81 110—289
Budnick ..... 101 91 82—274
Peters ..... 91 99 82—272
Foster ..... 100 94 95—289

488 425 440—1353

RUSSELL FAST GETTING INTO FORM FOR COMING BOUTS

Ted Russell, local welterweight, who fights at Willow Point on the 15th, is now at Joe Thomas' camp at Diamond Hill, R. I., working out with some of the top-notchers. Teddy writes that he is down to 149 pounds and feels in great condition and is doing five and six miles of road work every day at the farm. He is teamed with some of the big boys and is working out with them, boxing four rounds with the men of his weight every day. At the camp now is Bill Brennan, Billy Shade of California, Mike Morley, Panama Joe Guna, Nate Neigel and other boys who are stellar lights of the squared circle. Teddy has several fights scheduled for the next few weeks.

COL. W. H. HALL, SPORTSMAN, DECEASED BY HORSEMEN

In the Feb. 24rd issue of The Trotter and Pacer one who signs himself as "O. B. A." pays a tribute to the late Col. W. H. Hall of South Willington, a true sportsman and lover of light harness racing. He writes as follows:

"The favorite pastime of the colonial was the sport of racing horses, and for many years he annually campaigned one or more of the New England half-mile tracks, where he could see them perform several years ago, he was by limited his interest in the sport with Frank L. Stiles of North Haven, Conn., and they decided to call the combination the Clay-Cotton Stable, so named because Col. Hall manufactured and sold harnesses and was a partner in a harness shop."

To me it always was an impressive sight to see the owners of the Clay-Cotton Stable walk down the stretch—big men, wearing over $25,000, in "riding" with each other as though they were boys of fifteen. Mr. Stiles always has wintered in California and I understand that he came home to pay his last respects to his father and "playmate" who was laid to rest on Monday of this week.

Because of his prominence as a horseman, Col. Hall was chosen as a member of the Eastern District Board of the National Trotting Association a few years ago, which position he held at death. He was president of the Stafford Springs Agricultural Society and was largely responsible for its development into one of the biggest fairs of New England and the favor in which it has been held among the campaigning horsemen. He also served two years as president of the New England Agricultural Fair Association.

To foster the harness sport about three years ago he decided to apply for dates in the Bay State Circuit which would give Stafford Springs two meetings a year. As the schedule meeting he was awarded dates, but before the season was over, representatives of another association which had been previously admitted to the circuit, but which had not been given dates, stepped into the meeting and claimed the same week.

Sportsmen that he was, the colonel acknowledged the reasonableness of their dispute by the toss of a coin. They did, and Stafford lost. He had not given up, however, and before going south this year he apportioned for dates and got them—but it was a strange coincidence that while they were officially being awarded he was breaking his last in the sunny but the gloomy south.

When it is said, however, we believe that Colonel Hall's greatest delight in life came when he was accomplishing something which would enhance the physical and moral welfare of his little home town along the shores of the Willimantic river.

He erected homes where his employees, many of which are foreign born, could live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

BASKETBALL

BALTIC GYM, FRIDAY, MARCH 3rd
BATTERY B (All-Stars)
VS.
BALTIC WANDERERS

BANTAMS, VS
JEWETT CITY OWLS

ADMISSION—GENTS 35c
LADIES 25c—CHILDREN 20c
TAX INCLUDED

which the pitcher has been holding back for some time. McGraw said that the conference would be held.

Foster's Pets Outclassed
At the Palace alleys on Thursday evening Foster's Pets, heralded as one of the fastest bowling teams in the city and claimants for the city championship, suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Palace Rookies before a large gallery of enthusiastic bowling fans. The following score tells of the blaster hopes of the Foster aggregation:

Palace Rookies.
Albi ..... 87 79 91—257
Fuller ..... 93 101 100—294
Johnson ..... 100 78 94—272
Albi ..... 116 89 95—300
Simcox ..... 105 98 84—287

Foster's Pets.
Rous ..... 98 75 79—252
Furlong ..... 98 81 110—289
Budnick ..... 101 91 82—274
Peters ..... 91 99 82—272
Foster ..... 100 94 95—289

488 425 440—1353

RUSSELL FAST GETTING INTO FORM FOR COMING BOUTS

Ted Russell, local welterweight, who fights at Willow Point on the 15th, is now at Joe Thomas' camp at Diamond Hill, R. I., working out with some of the top-notchers. Teddy writes that he is down to 149 pounds and feels in great condition and is doing five and six miles of road work every day at the farm. He is teamed with some of the big boys and is working out with them, boxing four rounds with the men of his weight every day. At the camp now is Bill Brennan, Billy Shade of California, Mike Morley, Panama Joe Guna, Nate Neigel and other boys who are stellar lights of the squared circle. Teddy has several fights scheduled for the next few weeks.

COL. W. H. HALL, SPORTSMAN, DECEASED BY HORSEMEN

In the Feb. 24rd issue of The Trotter and Pacer one who signs himself as "O. B. A." pays a tribute to the late Col. W. H. Hall of South Willington, a true sportsman and lover of light harness racing. He writes as follows:

"The favorite pastime of the colonial was the sport of racing horses, and for many years he annually campaigned one or more of the New England half-mile tracks, where he could see them perform several years ago, he was by limited his interest in the sport with Frank L. Stiles of North Haven, Conn., and they decided to call the combination the Clay-Cotton Stable, so named because Col. Hall manufactured and sold harnesses and was a partner in a harness shop."

To me it always was an impressive sight to see the owners of the Clay-Cotton Stable walk down the stretch—big men, wearing over $25,000, in "riding" with each other as though they were boys of fifteen. Mr. Stiles always has wintered in California and I understand that he came home to pay his last respects to his father and "playmate" who was laid to rest on Monday of this week.

Because of his prominence as a horseman, Col. Hall was chosen as a member of the Eastern District Board of the National Trotting Association a few years ago, which position he held at death. He was president of the Stafford Springs Agricultural Society and was largely responsible for its development into one of the biggest fairs of New England and the favor in which it has been held among the campaigning horsemen. He also served two years as president of the New England Agricultural Fair Association.

To foster the harness sport about three years ago he decided to apply for dates in the Bay State Circuit which would give Stafford Springs two meetings a year. As the schedule meeting he was awarded dates, but before the season was over, representatives of another association which had been previously admitted to the circuit, but which had not been given dates, stepped into the meeting and claimed the same week.

Sportsmen that he was, the colonel acknowledged the reasonableness of their dispute by the toss of a coin. They did, and Stafford lost. He had not given up, however, and before going south this year he apportioned for dates and got them—but it was a strange coincidence that while they were officially being awarded he was breaking his last in the sunny but the gloomy south.

When it is said, however, we believe that Colonel Hall's greatest delight in life came when he was accomplishing something which would enhance the physical and moral welfare of his little home town along the shores of the Willimantic river.

He erected homes where his employees, many of which are foreign born, could live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.

Special Notice.
The Rumbling Five would like to announce

live in a modern atmosphere; he provided their children with splendid educational opportunities; he was intensely interested in the affairs of the town; he erected a place of worship; he built roads and streets, planted thousands of trees and otherwise did things which would beautify the town and surrounding neighborhood, carrying out in many instances the wishes of his late father, Gardner Hall.

As a lover of the harness sport, he may not be particularly remembered by many men in a few years to come, but as a man and a true friend, the memory of "Henry" Hall, as he was intimately known, will linger forever in the hearts and minds of his legion of friends, especially those of picturesque Tolland county, Conn., where he was born and raised, where he lived, and was loved.